

CLIMBS HIGHER UP THE LADDER

W. D. FORSTER RECEIVES A DESERVED APPOINT-MENT.

W. D. Forster has been promoted to the position of Assistant General Freight and Passenger Agent of the Brock lines, his appointment having taken effect on the fifteenth, while he was on the coast with Superintendent Hedden.

Mr. Forster was formerly traffic agent of the Tonopah and Goldfield road, and came here from the Southern Pacific. He is well known in railroad circles from east to west, and over the border in Canada, and is considered to be one of the brightest in the business. There has not been a railroad man who has come here from the various lines of the country in the past several months who has not known Mr. Forster, or known of him, and he is acknowledged to be one of the very best trans-continental freight men on the coast.

The new Assistant General Freight and Passenger agent was with the Southern Pacific for seven years, under General Freight Agent G. W. Luce. Previous to that he was with the Canadian Pacific and with F. Augustus Helze in the Kootenai country. Mr. Forster's new headquarters will be at Goldfield, but he will remain here until the return of Superintendent Hedden, who was suddenly called away to Philadelphia on Saturday night.

DUCK HUNTER IS FOUND DEAD

SAD FATE OF A YOUNG COM-
STOCKER WHO WAS HUNTING.

CARSON CITY, Oct. 28.—With one duck tightly clasped in his left hand and with his feet resting in a boat, while his body reclined against the bank of Washoe lake, the body of Clarence McGrath, a 16-year-old boy of Virginia City, was found yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock by Dr. W. W. Goode, of this city. The boy had evidently met death last Tuesday or Wednesday evening and the remains had been in that position since that time. Dr. Goode was searching for a trace of the missing lad when he made the discovery, but the dead lad bore such a striking resemblance to Louis Sheldon of this city, and who is now at the lake, that Mr. Goode thought at first that Sheldon had met death.

Last night the boy's father, John McGrath, a groceryman of Virginia City, and well known here, went to the lake in company with an undertaker. George Kitzmeyer and Wallace Evans of this city also went to the scene and the remains were prepared and taken to Virginia City last night. Undertaker Kitzmeyer last night stated that every indication was that the lad had met death last Tuesday afternoon, shortly after he had left the club house.

PERSONAL MENTION

Major James Monteath has returned from a trip to the coast.

S. A. Knapp was a passenger for the coast on Sunday morning.

Don Gillies went over to Goldfield yesterday, returning last evening.

State Bank Examiner Miller is expected here today from Goldfield.

Dr. Mapes, who has been East for some time, it is said will be home sometime this week.

Charles Stevens, formerly of the Bonanza printing staff, was a passenger for the coast last night.

Bryce W. Turner, general manager of the Montgomery Shoshone Mining Company, has returned to Bullfrog.

B. C. Hoffst, Nevada representative of the California Electric Company, with headquarters in Tonopah, left for San Francisco on Sunday night.

Thomas Swope, the young mining man, who lost his arm in an accident at the mill of the Montana Tonopah three weeks ago, left for his home in Missouri last night, accompanied by his wife.

W. S. Johnson, who has been ill with erysipelas for several weeks, left on Sunday morning for the coast. He has been on the road to recovery for a week, but did not seem to get stronger in this climate, so he decided on a change.

Congressman George A. Bartlett and Key Pittman will leave for Carson this morning. The nature of their trip is not known, but it is supposed to be in connection with some phase of the bank situation.

Don't forget the Bonanza's up to date bindery.

CHARMING WEDDING SUNDAY EVENING

MISS MARY FRANCES MCCARTHY
BECOMES MRS. JAMES ZEIGLER.

A very charming little wedding took place at the residence of Judge and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien on Sunday night, when two of the most popular members of the younger set, Miss Mary Frances McCarthy and Mr. James Edwin Zeigler, were made one. Only the immediate families of the two, and their immediate friends, were present. The handsome drawing room, which is becoming a veritable bower of Cupid, was artistically and tastefully decorated. The great fireplace was banked with chrysanthemums, while the pictures were twined with asparagus ferns and carnations, and there were vases of carnations and chrysanthemums on the mantel, piano, tables and taborettes.

The bride, one of the most beautiful girls to whom Tonopah could ever lay claim, petite, blonde and perfect in figure, made a dazzling picture of loveliness in her wedding gown, a creation of chiffon over tulle silk, trimmed with hand-made princess lace and pearls. A dainty veil of tulle, which has been for many years in the family of the bride, completed the costume.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Butler, the bride being given away by her father. She was attended by Miss Mary E. McCaffery, who was becomingly attired in a pink gown of chiffon cloth, and was a companion picture for the bride. Mr. Zeigler's best man was his brother, Mr. John F. Zeigler of Lancaster, Pa.

Mr. Zeigler is connected with the house of George F. Blakeslee, and is regarded as one of Tonopah's most promising young business men. He has made many friends during his stay here, and his magnificent barytone voice has been heard to charming advantage both in private and in public. His voice, his pleasing personality, and his ability as a musician have always made him a welcome guest at the club and in private social life. Mrs. Zeigler is the daughter of T. T. McCarthy, a pioneer of Virginia City, and one of the best known mining men in Nevada. Her charm of manner and personal attractions have won her many friends and a world of good wishes have been launched in the wake of the happy pair. Present at the wedding were Mr. T. T. McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Blakeslee, Mr. R. J. McCarthy, Miss Mary McCaffery, Mr. J. F. Zeigler, Mr. James McCarthy of San Francisco, Miss May McNamara, Mr. Joe McCarthy and Mr. Charles G. Bevis.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler had intended going East, but have decided to defer that part of the honeymoon until later on, when they will visit the home of the groom in Lancaster, Pa. For the present Bryan avenue will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler.

HEAVY DOWNPOUR CAUSES HAVOC

WORK OF CITIZENS PARTIALLY PREVENTS GREAT DAMAGE.

The heavy downpour which began at an early hour on Sunday morning and kept up, or kept down, for nearly all the balance of the day, was the heaviest that has visited Tonopah in many a day. It was heavier than the fall for the entire month of October a year ago.

Toward the very earlier hours of the morning, when the water was pouring down by the bucketful, there was a stream tore down Main street, which did considerable damage to the new Tonopah club building. The concrete wall at the street was undermined and a cave-in resulted, the water pouring into the cellar like the breaking of a dam. There was another stream emptied into the cellar of the new Mizpah building, carrying down with it a great accumulation of dirt.

There were very few men on the street at the time, but W. W. Booth, realizing that prompt measures were expedient, called together about half a dozen and began to throw sacks into the breach. Attempts were made to connect with several of the mines to have them sound the whistles and call out the fire department, but to no purpose. Had it not been for the quick work of the Booth brigade, considerable damage would have probably resulted to the Lothrop-Davis building.

The rainfall for the month is 1.23 inches, and the latest fall was half an inch. The fall for the entire month a year ago was but .11 inch.

HENRY HART WEDS MISS ALVA RITTER

ONE OF TONOPAH'S CHARMING
YOUNG WOMEN IS MARRIED.

Miss Alva Ritter was married on Sunday night to William Henry Hart of Granville, North Dakota. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents on California Heights, the ceremony being performed by Judge Brissell, who is an old friend of the family from Sacramento.

A wedding feast followed the congratulations showered upon the couple, and a jolly time was had to the accompaniment of an orchestra, during which there were appropriate toasts, and the health of Mr. and Mrs. Hart was drunk.

Mrs. Hart is a most charming girl, pretty, sweet and refined. She came here last spring with her parents from Virginia City, where she had been a teacher in the public school. She has made many friends and if well wishes count for aught she should be the happiest of October brides.

TONOPAH DANCING CLUB TO CELEBRATE

WILL GIVE FREE BALL ON ITS FIRST ANNI-VERSARY.

The Tonopah Dancing Club will celebrate its first anniversary on next Saturday night by giving a free ball at Miners' hall. The occasion is looked forward to as one of the greatest of the many pleasant functions given by the club since its inception.

This is to be, really, a return affair to the public which has so generously patronized the club in the past, and the members, having a good treasury could not imagine a better compliment to bestow on the patrons than to give them a ball. The floor will be in the usual good condition, and the music will be of the best, a brass band to be in attendance in addition to the regular orchestra. The decorations are being looked after by the proper committee, and several new and novel features are being arranged.

BUTLER THEATRE'S NEW ATTRACTION

The Butler theater last night was crowded and the show was great. O'Brien and Onslow head the bill with rapid fire conversation and up to date parodies and songs. Gladys Middleton sings "When the Violets Whisper, Marie," illustrated, the slides being the finest ever shown here. Al Busch in his Dutch monologue was pleasing. Birdie May sang two charming numbers in costume. The sketch, entitled "Baby Elephant," by the entire company was a side-splitting farce and kept the audience in an uproar. The two reels of moving pictures, showing the "Colored Album" and "A Struggle For Life," are fine and conclude a most pleasing performance.

LEG AMPUTATED.

Word has been received from San Francisco to the effect that Charles McCaffery, formerly of this section, had his leg amputated in that city a few days ago. Several years ago Mr. McCaffery had one of his legs severely injured by a piece of rock from a blast on the Gould & Curry mine; on the Comstock. As he was alighting from a buggy in Tonopah on returning from a funeral he cut his arm on a copper rivet, which caused blood-poisoning to set in, which lodged in the old injury to his leg, causing the wound to reopen and making amputation necessary. Mr. McCaffery's scores of friends will be sorry to hear of his misfortune.—Carson News.

HALLOWEEN SOCIAL.

WAS CHASING POT OF GOLD

THE POPULAR LEGEND CAME VERY NEAR BEING REALIZED.

Cheer up, Mary; don't be sighing. There's a rainbow in the sky.

Did you see that glorious rainbow of promise on Sunday afternoon? Popular legend has it, and it has come down through the corridors of time, from the nursery rhymes, that at the end of a rainbow is a pot of gold.

This rainbow was the nearest to earth than any which has ever been seen in Tonopah.

One tip of it rested on the top of the State Bank and Trust Company building, and the other went down the shaft of the Tonopah Extension.

That is, that is the way it looked to people up on Mount Brougher, and the arch of it hovered over the Midway, the Montana Tonopah and the Mizpah. It looked that way to Don Bartlett, the eldest son of Congressman George Bartlett, who bolted from his nursery without hat or coat, and was well under way in the pelting rain, when a maternal admonition halted his expedition in quest of the golden fleece.

"I am going to get the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow," he cried back, but alas the pot of gold was not for him. If anybody else got it, he left town right away, for there has been nobody seen in town bragging about his wealth.

There has long been a suspicion that there is a great pot of gold down in the depths of the Tonopah Extension, and it was passing strange that the other end of the phenomenon found a resting place on the roof of the State Bank and Trust Company, under which are the offices of Malcolm Macdonald, Lew Parkhurst and Key Pittman, and, strangely enough, Congressman Bartlett was in the offices at the time.

So, perhaps, little Don will have to look to papa for that pot of gold.

ATTORNEY COLE AND WIFE RETURN

COUPLE WERE THE RECI-PIENTS OF MANY CON-GRATULATIONS.

Attorney Walter Cole and his bride arrived in the city on Sunday, and were the recipients of many congratulations yesterday; at least that was the case with Mr. Cole, who went from here more than a month ago in a state of single blessedness.

Mrs. Cole was formerly Miss Winifred Burdge of Oakland, and the wedding took place at the home of her parents in the Western Athens about a month ago, since which time the happy couple have been spending their honeymoon on the coast. Mr. Cole is one of Tonopah's successful young lawyers, being the partner of Fred L. Berry. He was the law partner of Judge O'Brien, prior to the accession of the latter to the bench. He is very well known in this community, and is highly esteemed both socially and in his profession. Mrs. Cole will be a welcome acquisition to the younger set of Tonopah's four hundred.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the State Board of Medical Examiners at Carson City, Nevada, on November 4th, 1907. S. L. LEE, Secretary.
